Anvers 2005 The Warrior Shiraz

WITH 14.5 per cent alcohol, The Warrior makes a bold advance on the taste buds but is well-balanced and would be an ideal partner for chicken cassoulet, grilled beef fillet with shiraz jus or rack of lamb with rosemary stuffing and mint sauce. It's a multi-regional blend of Adelaide Hills, McLaren Vale and Langhorne Creek shiraz. It is ruby red with deep purple depths and has aromas of lavender and sweet dried cranberries. Lush plum flavour features on the front palate and fruitcake cherry and spice fruit characters meld with nutty oak on the middle palate. Minty tannins come through at the finish. The Anvers operation was established in 1996 by Wayne and Myriam Keogh and the wines are made by top-rated consultant winemaker and Master of Wine Kym Milne.
